"No Footsteps Backward."

The following is the valedictory delivered last night at the Grand Opera House by Miss Hazel Ferris Cottingham, the bright and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cottingham, who won the honors of the 1908 class at the Paris High School:

"The immutable law of life is action. Everything animate and inanimate adheres to this inexorable law, without it nothing can possibly exist."

"The solar system with its infinite number of worlds, sweeps through space at an incredible velocity; the sun the source of all heat and physical light continues century after century around the cycles of time, hastening on in his ceaseless journey, with never a pause and never a step backward. All the innumerable planets that circle about the sun as a center, adhere to the same law of motion. Onward, ever onward, they go, with never a halt and never a backward step."

"The blood of life continually flows round and round in its various circulations. The vitalizing liquids of all plants keep moving. And thus it is with everything. Nothing can remain at a standstill without fatal results."

"The majestic rivers of the world flow onward, with an irresistible force, carrying everything with which they come in contact before them. Nothing can escape them, nothing can turn them backward. Onward they go, sweeping over rocks in their course and removing every barrier. Human life and human institutions must adhere to the same law of ceaseless motion. The movement must ever be forward, not backward. Onward toward a definite goal, upward toward high ideals, the current of life rushes. It can no more change and flow backward than the river can turn and flow toward its source."

"From the earliest period of the world's history, this same law has been in operation, and by it the world has been gradually raised from state of barbaric savagery to the present state of civilization. The watchword of the twentieth century is 'Forward,' or, negatively 'Nulla vestigia retrorsum' (No Footsteps Backward).

"Every nation has, to a limited extent, lived up to this. The United States, is, perhaps, the best example of this. A little more than a hundred years ago, this great country was a weak union of thirteen discordant States, with no railroads, no telegraph lines, no telephones, no iron bridges or any other modern conveniences that abound today. But by adhering to this law of progress, by grasping what was in her reach, and by developing her natural resources, she has grown from an insignificant country, without knowledge or spirit of union, without strength or wealth at home, or recognition abroad, to what she now is—the richest, the freest, the most popular and prosperous nation on earth."

"The life of the individual is like the life of a nation and no person can hope to succeed, who, with idle hands, waits for success to come to him. For time, with the tide of human destiny, sweeps on with never a pause, never a halt, hurrying on to the ocean of eternity."

"There is absolutely no substitute for this irresistible onward movement. Nothing can take its place. Scientists tell us that the various forms of energy manifest in the universe—light, heat, gravitation, magnetism, electricity—are all convertible into one another. But if a man has not this persistent forward movement, no other qualification is convertible into it, or can be substituted for it. Nothing can take its place. Learning cannot. Wealth cannot. Noble ancestry cannot. The world's greatest men have ever been her most active and energetic workers."

"History is full of splendid examples of what may be accomplished by adhering to this motto. It was this that led Columbus across the Atlantic to America; it was this that led Knox to the reformation of Scotland; it was this in Wesley that regenerated religious life in England; it was this that brought Napoleon to his marvelous success. Under all difficulties and discouragements his motto was 'I press on.' When told that the Alps stood in the way of his army: 'There shall be no Alps,' said he and he built a pass across them. Old Commodore Vanderbilt, being asked what he considered the secret of business success, replied, 'Secret.'

"There is no secret about it. All you have to do is to attend to your business and go ahead. Milton wrote 'Paradise Lost' in poverty and blindness. His motto was, 'I argue not against heaven's hand or will nor bait one jot of heart or hope, but still bear up and steer right onward.'

"As it has been with men of other generations, so it is with us today, and the motto, not only for this class, but for every class of young people who wish to succeed in life, must be 'Nulla vestigia retrorsum.'

"Another year has passed beyond our recall and we are all gathered together tonight, probably for the last time. For many years we have been associated with each other and have shared each other's joys and sorrows, but now the time has come when we must mingle with the outer world, each of us to choose the course in life for which we are best fitted."

"Many pleasures have been our during our school life and especially has this past year been one of enjoyment, but now this is all at an end. Our school career in the Paris High School is completed and new responsibilities must henceforth be assumed by us. No matter what the future may hold in store, for us we can always look back to this day as we being the turning point of our lives, for such it is bound to be."

"But whatever course we choose in life let us never cease to be grateful to our teachers for their kind care and the interest wh ch they have always taken in us. May fortune favor

Paris High School Commencement.

In the presence of one of the largest audiences ever assembled at the Grand Opera House on any previous occasion of the like, the commencement exercises of the Paris High School were concluded last evening.

Owing to the extreme length of the exercises the program was divided and two evenings consumed in the delivering of the orations and the rendition of the excellent musical program that had been arranged, and which reflected much credit upon the efforts of Miss Julia O'Brien, the instructor in music at the school.

The first part of the program was carried out at the Christian church on Wednesday evening, where despite the threatening elements, a large audience greeted the graduates. The colors of the class, red and white, were carried out in the decoration and vases of red and white cut flowers were scattered here and there upon the rostrum, which was banked with ferns and growing palms, while the choir railing was draped in soft material of the class colors.

Promptly at eight o'clock to the sweet strains of the pipe organ, Miss Betsy Ray presiding, the members of the chorus filed into the choir and at the same time, coming in from an entrance in the rear, the eleven graduates, with Profs. Chapman and Johnson at their head, took their places on the rostrum in front of the audience.

After the invocation by Elder Carey E. Morgan, Miss Birdie Woolstein sang sweetly "The Nightingale's Song," which was followed by the orations, viz: "The Greatest Invention," Harry Brent Fithian; "America," Fairie June Tempin; "Self-Made If Ever Made," Mary Agnes Brannon; "Uncrowned Kings," Minnie Harrison Shy; "The New South," Madeline Lawrence Huddleston; "The Greatest Thing in the World," Elizabeth Barnum Crutcher; "Kentucky," Junie Muir Link. Each of these young people deserve special mention, but lack of space forbids suffice to say that each handled their thesis in a manner that reflected much honor upon themselves and upon the Paris High School. They acquitted themselves admirably before an appreciative audience.

One of the pleasing features of this exercise was the rendition of "Mighty Lack a Rose," by a double quartette, composed of Misses Nellie Long, Lucile Williams, Mattie Mattox and Birdie Woolstein, Messrs. Lyle Duvall, Prentiss Lancaster, Wallace Clark, Merritt Howard; also "Just a Bit of Cloth, But it's Red, White and Blue," by the chorus composed of the pupils of the school and after which the benediction was pronounced by Rev. G. C. Clarke.

Only four graduates remained to address the audience that assembled at the Opera House last night, Willie Thompson Summers, who delivered the salutatory, "The Light of Love," William Stephens Arnsperger, "The True Measures of Man," Oscar Hinton, "Harmony in Nature," Bessie Claire Brannon, "Manhood vs. Money," and Hazel Ferris Cottingham, who delivered the valedictory, the subject of which was, "No Footsteps Backward."

At the conclusion of the valedictory, Hon. Everett Jennings, of Madisonville, Ky., delivered to the graduates an earnest and forceful address which was followed by the presentation of the diplomas by Dr. Frank L. Lapsley, Secretary of the Board of Education.

Conditions Worse Than Reported

Col. E. W. Lillard, on his return to Frankfort from Bracken county, reported that conditions here on the arrival of the soldiers were much worse than they have ever been pictured.

He said at the large tobacco rally at Augusta floats were paraded which represented Gov. Wilson in a disgusting attitude and showed night riders scraping a plant bed and hanging a dummy.

Col. Lillard said these floats were loudly applauded. Conditions have greatly changed and the worst element is now under control.

Sale Bigger Than Reported.

A special from Lexington to Wednesday's dailies says:

"It was learned Tuesday from G. A. Brooks, secretary of the Kentucky Burley Tobacco Society, who was in this city, that the sale of pooled tobacco concluded Monday was even greater than at first announced. Mr. Brooks says that the quantity sold was 4,000,000 pounds, or 4,000 hogsheads, instead of 400,000 pounds as reported here. The sale comprises all of the pooled tobacco of the 1906 crop of the grades rated at 14 cents and under. The portion of the 1906 crop remaining in the pool is graded at from 16 to 30 cents. Of the entire 1906 crop, aggregating 52,000 hogsheads, 24,000 hogsheads have been sold. The high-grade tobacco which now remains is expected to sell quickly, as the 1907 crop will then be placed on the market. Mr. Brooks stated that he does not know positively that the American Tobacco Company purchased the 4,000 hogsheads just sold, as it was bought through an Eastern broker who was in Winchester Friday and Saturday. The weed has been paid for. There is thought to be little doubt that the American Tobacco Company was the real purchaser."

A SPRING TONIC.

With the coming of the Spring days, those days that exhilarate, yet produce that tired feeling, Nature needs an assistant to encourage a man of to-day to his best efforts. Physicians advise against medicines. What then? The celebrated

There is food and tonic IN LION BEER. Invalids and convalescents find it invaluable for building up exhausted strength. As a nourishing food for mothers, there is nothing to equal it.

The Tariff Issue.

Outside of the intricacies of the different schedules of the tariff, purposely made obscure and difficult for voters to understand, the question of high or low tariff is the real fact at issue. That plain issue everybody can comprehend. The present tariff was especially designed to protect the trusts and manufacturers from foreign competition, and the question of raising revenue for the government was a secondary consideration. The Republican politicians when concocting the present tariff law to suit the Trusts and protected monopolists rashly discarded the presumption that foreign countries, when they found the schedules so prohibitive that they could not profitably export their products to this country, would retaliate by increasing their rates of duties, so as to prohibit the importation of American goods. Foreigners want our wheat and flour, our corn and meat and tobacco and other products they do not raise themselves, or do not produce in sufficient quantities to supply their consumers, but they do not want our manufactured goods to compete with their own like products. Such countries as Germany, France, Austria, Russia, and in fact every country, but England, has raised a higher tariff barrier to prevent competition from the United States. They declare, if you will not trade with us, we will buy as little as possible of you.

The trusts try to overcome their foreign tariff barrier by selling at much lower prices to the foreigners than to our own people. The European and other foreign markets are loaded down with bargain counter goods from the United States, while trust prices here are still kept at the top notch. Therefore, the question the voters of the United States must decide at the coming election, is whether they are satisfied to pay high prices for much they buy, or by reducing the tariff participate in the reduced prices that the foreigners enjoy. That is a very simple proposition to vote upon. Those few voters who benefit by Trust high prices, will, of course, vote to continue the Republican party in power. Those who think the trusts should shift for themselves and be subject to competition that will force them to sell their products as cheaply abroad will vote the Democratic ticket.

The Republican National platform will declare as former ones have, for "the principle of protection," and although there may be a promise to revise the tariff, there will be no direct promise to revise it lower.

How can the protective principle be perpetuated without continuing or even increasing the present rates? Don't be again fooled by promises unless specific reductions are included.

Fashion in Accident.

A huge passenger balloon fell Saturday near San Francisco, causing serious injury to sixteen persons. The Baldwin airship was wrecked at Hammondsport. The Knabenshue machine collided with a baseball grandstand in Toledo, injuring its crew of three.

Time was when a man's best chance of getting into the accident column of a Monday morning, aside from seasonal risks like yachting and swimming in summer, skating and bob-sledding in winter, was to drive a fast trotter down the road and disagree with a hitching post over the right of way.

Ten years ago—how impossible it seems!—the bicycle was the great promoter of the sale of crutches and surgeon's plaster. So sedate has the wheel become, so much more lethal is the ravening automobile, it seems almost impossible that "Old Subscriber" could so lately have viewed with alarm the speed madness of the bicyclist.

And now is the monster breathing fire and gasoline, that scorns mere bruises and kills when it strikes, about to yield first place in the accident list to airships, which may not even leave enough of their victims for decent burial? Must the pedestrian, trained to glance both ways quickly when crossing a street, also keep a weather eye aloft for descending aviators? If every age has its own new dangers and most of the old ones besides, Malthus spoke too soon. The earth need little fear overpopulation.

Nobody Fooled.

Governor Wilson is the greatest fourflusher of the age, but he is not fooling anybody, not even himself, says the Winchester Democratic. He is succeeding in making himself the most ridiculous spectacle this State has ever witnessed. Not a day passes that his literary bureau, at Frankfort, does not issue a statement that he is still studying the records in the Powers and Howard cases. There is great danger that he will wear these records out. When he attended the Conference of Governors at Washington it was announced that he took the records with him and studied them on the way. Last week when he ran up to Lexington to deliver an address to the graduating class of Campbell-Hagerman College, it was duly announced that he read the records while riding on the interurban car and continued to study it after he reached the opera house. Later in the week he made a trip to Indiana to make a speech at some school commencement, and the usual announcement was forthcoming that he had the omnipresent record with him and lost not a moment's time in studying it. Now, who is fooling by all this? The people of the State know exactly what he is going to do, and they know that when the Republican members of the General Assembly visited him in a body, and urged him to pardon Powers and Howard, that he told them he reit deep sympathy for both prisoners—meaning both assassins—and that both he and his wife had contributed to their defense funds. He may not know that the people of the State know this, but they do, and what his final action will be is already forecaste and discounted, and all this show and pretense of making an impartial study and investigation is simply the purest and plainest sort of buncombe and is fooling nobody, not even Wilson himself. He hasn't the moral courage to turn down the applications for these pardons, even if he believed that such action would add to his political popularity, of which he is in such sad need. The only course that will gain for him any respect even from the Republicans, is for him to grant the pardons, and to do it on the ground that he was elected for that purpose, for no citizen of the State, with even half it, can justify him if he claims the records warrant a pardon.

Against Anticipating Trouble.

Why destroy present happiness by a distant misery which may never come at all? Every substantial grief has 20 shadows, and most of them shadows of your own making.—Sydney Smith.

The Badge of Honesty

Is on every wrapper of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because a full list of the ingredients composing it is printed there in plain English. Forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. It builds up the running system as no other tonic can—which alcohol is used. The active medicinal principles of native roots such as Golden Seal and Queen's root, Stone and Mandrake root, Bloodroot and Black Cherry bark are extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well-recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coe, Ellingwood and a host of others, showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action in all weak states of the stomach, accompanied by indigestion or dyspepsia as well as in all bilious or liver complaints and in all wasting diseases where there is loss of flesh and gradual running down of the strength and system.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, pure blood and so invigorates and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, and through them, the whole system. Thus all skin afflictions, blotches, pimples and eruptions as well as scrofulous swellings and old open running sores or ulcers are cured and healed. In treating old running sores, or ulcers, it is well to insure their healing to apply to them Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve. If your druggist don't happen to have this Salve in stock, send fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by return post.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

THE CAUSE OF THIS MIGHTY SLAUGHTER.

The critical moment has arrived—that is the situation—here now. The recent stringency of the money market has created a condition which has never occurred before. Circumstances have so shaped themselves that we are forced to slaughter our magnificent stock. We must raise money at all hazards. Our entire capital is tied up in merchandise. We therefore need relief. Heroic sacrifices are sometimes necessary. This is one of the times. We meet the situation promptly and emphatically. The urgent demand for money brought this gigantic money raising sale on Twin Brothers at Paris, which we pass along to you. The enormity of our stock, the vital danger and burden it applies at this critical financial stagnation forces us to reduce stock. Notwithstanding our reputation as givers of best values, we now give an extra twirl to the wheels of trade by offering such astonishing values that competition is not even attempted. It is not necessary to go into details relative to the high class merchandise we carry, for every man, woman and child in Bourbon County and vicinity is well aware of the fact that anything bought from Twin Brothers was the best that money can buy. Come and see for yourselves and be convinced.

NEW CENTURY BINDER

This binder has a world-wide reputation. In every grain growing country under the Sun it is said to be the best yet by all who use it or see it work. The features that appeal most to its users are: - lightness of draft; hardness of operation; durability of construction; ability to do perfect work in any kind of grain; accuracy and sure work of knotter; absence of neck weight and side draft. The New Century is the latest type of binder, made by the people who gave the world its most successful binder, and now give it its most successful one-a binder that will do work no other machine can do.

It is constructed on principles that insure more work, better work, longer life and reduced repair bills with less loss of time. We'd like to send you our free catalog describing it in full before you decide on which binder to buy.

Are Different From All Others

WALTER A. WOOD MOWERS

When the late Walter A. Wood built his first mower in 1862 it was upon a principle entirely different from that used by all others. It is the "floating frame" described so fully in our catalog. All mowers of modern times are based on the same principle today distinguishing them from all others. It is the "floating frame" principle that the "direct under-draft" principle is the correct one—but they can't use it because they don't have the "floating frame" construction which is exclusive to Walter A. Wood mowers. We feel justified in assuring our customers that the easiest running; lightest draft; handiest to operate; least expensive to keep in repair and longest lived. The mower that leads on every point is the one you will want to buy. There are many other good points fully illustrated and described in our Catalog. Write for it today.

MILLERSBURG ITEMS.

The commencement exercises of the Millersburg Military Institute closed Monday evening at the M. M. I. gymnasium. Monday was a beautiful day, just cool enough to be pleasant for the cadets taking part in the competitive drills and ball game.

At 9:30 Monday morning the exercises on college campus began. The medal in the manual of arms was won by Cadet Brown, of Chicago. The contest was an interesting one, especially after it narrowed down to three. In the competitive drill the flag was won by Company B. This was also interesting and there was a great deal of diversity of opinion among spectators as to which company would carry the flag.

Monday afternoon, at 2:30 ball game between M. M. I. and Flemingsburg. It was a game full of errors, and was won by M. M. I. by a score of 9 to 6.

Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, the fifteenth annual commencement was held in the gymnasium. The auditorium and gallery was well filled. The orchestra of Saxton & Trost, Lexington, furnished the music. After the cadets had taken their platform, the invocation was pronounced by Rev. R. S. Sanders, orations were delivered by James Frank Bellinger, of South Bend, Ind., and Charles Lockhart Mehagan, of Chicago, Ill., they having received the honors of the class.

The only disappointment in the entire exercise was the failure of Dr. Hinnitt, president of Central University to arrive, who was on the program for the baccalaureate address, but was unavoidably prevented from being here on account of pressing business at Washington, D. C., however, Prof. Throckmorton, Dean of the law department of the same institution delivered the address, which was favorably received.

Major C. M. Best in an appropriate address delivered the diplomas, after which Mr. Throckmorton presented the medal to Cadet Fagan, of Germantown, he receiving the highest general average during the entire year. The audience was then introduced to Major and Mrs. Burton, of Shelbyville. Major Burton has been with K. M. I. for several years. Major Best has secured him and he will be identified with K. M. I. next year. Then came the announcements that Capt. Magruder and Capt. Allebach will retire from the faculty. Capt. Riley will return next fall. Capt. Magruder has been connected with the institution for three years and was well liked by both pupils and patrons. He goes to take a three year course in one of the leading institutions of the country.

Capt. Allebach has been with us only a few months, but made a number of friends in that time who will always remember him kindly. Capt. Reiley is the best all-round man ever connected with the institution. He secures the best results from his pupils and makes them love him all the more for having done so. He is a baseball wizard and has coached the team for the past two seasons, playing sixteen games, losing only two. School adjourned at 9:30 Monday evening to re-open September 9.

Mr. G. W. McIntyre, of Tackett & McIntyre has sold his interest in their butcher shop to his partner Mr. C. D. Tackett. Mr. McIntyre is nearly eighty years old and has spent a long life as a business man. For many years he was a prominent farmer and an extensive dealer in mules. He has missed but few county court days at Paris, Cynthiana and Carlisle in the last fifty years and has never experienced any sickness save a slight cold until recently. His health is failing some, but is still able to be out on the street.

Monday evening after the close of the commencement exercises the young people repaired to the opera house where a delightful impromptu dance was given. Dancers and spectators were numerous, embracing the representative people from this and all surrounding towns, and continuing until the wee sma' hours of morning. Saxton & Trost's orchestra furnished the music. It was one of the most pleasant features of the short festive season and will be pleasantly remembered by many visitors as well as the home people.

Jackson has at last woken up the people of Paris and the Paris Grand is playing to packed houses. Wednesday night was amateur night and each and every act was highly appreciated by those who were there as the applause was so great it was impossible to decide the winners and as the management gave cash prizes there were equally divided. Those who took part were Miss Gay Mansfield, Miss Lizzie Mann, Miss Marie Livingston and the Wooldsten Bros.

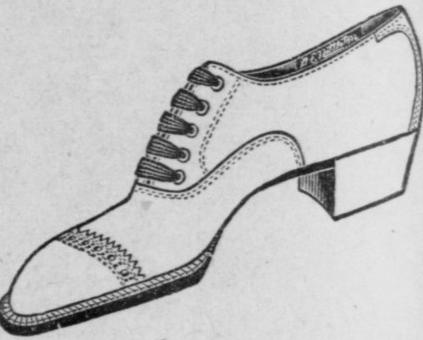

Saturday will be the pie eating contest by some of the most prominent boys of our town. Monday will be a complete change of program. Those popular juvenile artists, Debout and Due and Bob Cunningham will be the attractions. Tuesday June 9, the young ladies of the town will have a wood-sawing contest, the winner to receive a prize.

Thursday will be another complete change—West and Benton and Tom Ward. There will be something new every night and the management promises to make the Paris Grand the most prominent place in town, so follow the crowd and you will not regret it.

Alumni Banquet.

The Paris High School Alumni Banquet, Wednesday evening, at the Elks' building, in honor of the 1908 class, was a grand success in every particular. Dr. Hugh Clendenin, of Louisville, was toastmaster and filled the place in an admirable manner. Judge Denis Dundon and Mr. F. P. Walker made excellent addresses. Prof. G. W. Chapman was very happy in his response to the toast "Our School." Miss Henrietta Oberdorfer responded to toast "To Man's Weakness," which was enthusiastically applauded.

Miss Elizabeth Barnum Crutcher the bright and handsome young graduate, who had only a few minutes before delivered an excellent graduating oration at the Christian church, was selected to respond to the toast "The Class of 1908." Her words were well chosen and spoken in a manner that captivated all present. Mr. Robert Friend who was on the program to respond to "Our Alumnae," was unavoidably absent, but his letter was read and highly enjoyed and appreciated.

The following menu was served by the ladies of the Baptist church: Beaten biscuits, sandwiches, fruit salad, dressed eggs, pickle, cheese, chicken croquets with cream sauce, ice cream, cake, coffee.

Long may the Paris High School Alumni live to enjoy many more such banquets.

Meeting of Fiscal Court.

The Bourbon Fiscal Court, in session Wednesday, passed an order instructing County Attorney T. E. Moore, Jr., to institute condemnation proceedings in the County Court whereby the county can obtain a right of way through the property of Rachel and L. F. Chanselor, of near Millersburg, whose property adjoins that recently purchased of Lewis Merriman to be used as a rock quarry.

An order was passed authorizing County Treasurer W. W. Miller to borrow $12,000 from the bank of George Alexander & Co., with which to meet the overcheck now outstanding, and to pay the June claims against the county, including the appropriation at that meeting of the court for turnpike repairs and accounts against the county. The loan is to bear 6 per cent interest and will extend until the 1908 levy becomes available. The court also authorized the withdrawal of $7,500 from the court house bond and interest fund, with which to meet the semi-annual payment of court house bonds, due July 1 and which must be paid in New York on that date.

The following farmers presented certified statements for the value of sheep destroyed by dogs, which, by order of the court, were certified to the Auditor of Public Accounts at Frankfort for payment: Lee Deavers, $27; James L. Dodge, $61; J. A. Wagner, $35; and W. O. Shropshire, $12.

The report of Turnpike Supervisor C. F. Redmon was read and approved. The report showed that rapid progress is being made in the reconstruction and repairing of the roads of the county, and claims of turnpike contractors for work done were allowed aggregating $3,772.78. Accounts against the county aggregating $674.07 were approved and warrants ordered drawn upon the treasurer for their payment.

The union services of the Presbyterian churches will be held in the Second Presbyterian church Sunday. Preaching as usual at both services by Rev. J. S. Malone, of the First church.

HEROISM OF FARMERS

Letter From Oklahoma to Member of the Burley Tobacco Society.

Enid, Okla., April 2, 1908.
Dear Sir—I could not refrain from writing to you to express my admiration for the heroism of the Kentucky farmers' associations. It is gratifying to our national pride to find that the old fire of liberty is only smoldering in the breasts of the American people and not dead as some of us had begun to fear. For the sake of our American manhood, stay with them to the end. The destiny of the American nation depends upon the grand old state of Kentucky. Do not allow yourselves to be defeated by spies and traitors. Hurrah for Old Kentucky!

If your people get short on grub, appeal to the farmers of Oklahoma and Kansas. They should send carloads of flour and meat. They also have money. May the God of Justice aid you.

If I were not so busy I would come up just to see such a grand lot of farmers as you must have there. God bless them! Yours for the success of the good cause.

JOHN B. STOUT.

A Resting Place.

(Winchester Democrat)
Another squad of Governor Willson's soldiers rode into Winchester Saturday morning. After eating breakfast, they went to bed and slept all day, with neither pickets nor sentinels out. This furnishes an explanation why these soldiers come here without request of the civil authorities, and without reporting to the civil authorities. They simply come here for rest and sleep in a good, safe place. They know this is the headquarters of the Burley Tobacco Growers' association, they know that the members of that association have even a higher regard for law than Governor Willson has, and they know that they can sleep here without danger of surprise and capture by Night Riders, but with all that soldiers in time of peace are distasteful, and the citizens here prefer that they should stay away.

It is a deplorable fact that the trust has been able to shift the fight against the Burley growers on to the shoulders of the independent growers.—Dover News.

Hot Stove—Cool Kitchen

How do you expect to endure the broiling days of summer if you prepare all the food over a glowing coal fire?

You need a "New Perfection" Oil Stove that will do the cooking without cooking the cook. It concentrates plenty of heat under the pot and diffuses little or none through the room. Therefore, when working with the

the kitchen actually seems as comfortable as you could wish it to be.

This, in itself, is wonderful, but, more than that, the "New Perfection" Oil Stove does perfectly everything that any stove can do. It is an ideal all-round cook-stove. Made in three sizes, and fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp

Our family were all born and raised in Iowa, and have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy (made at Des Moines) for years. Of Interest to Burley Tobacco Society.

To the Members of the Burley Tobacco Society:

The Executive Board of the Burley Tobacco Society recommends that no member of the Society shall sell his warehouse receipts or transfer his tobacco to anyone:

1st. Because our tobacco is selling rapidly; we have to this date sold at marker—24,000 hogsheads out of the 52,000 hogsheads.

2nd. Because we have little tobacco left of grades below 16 to 20 cents.

3rd. Because the 1907 crop will grade much higher than the 1906.

4th. Because the 1908 crop has been eliminated beyond our highest expectation.

This advice is given to protect those who may not be informed.

CONDEMN'S ACTION OF SOLDIER.

Grand Jury of Hopkins County Protests Against Troops Going Out Without Civil Officials' Orders.

(Evening Post.)
Madisonville, Ky., May 18.—Before the grand jury was dismissed Saturday afternoon they made a report on the soldiers who were riding over the county last week, and the report is a warm one, which follows:

"To the Honorable Judge of the Hopkins Circuit Court: We, the grand jury of Hopkins county, beg leave to report that we find that on the night of May 10, 1908, Company G, Third Regiment of Kentucky State Guards, stationed at Earlinton, in Hopkins county, Kentucky, or a part of said company, under the command of Captain Paul Price, was ordered into active service and under command of Major Albrecht made a trip through a portion of this county. We have been unable to ascertain whether or not these troops were ordered into active service by the proper authorities, but we find that the commanding officer, Major Albrecht, did not report to any civil officer in Hopkins county or any civil officer of any of the towns and cities in said county, and we heartily condemn this violation of the spirit of the law which says 'the military shall be at all times and in all cases in strict subordination to the civil power.'

"The commanding officer, when he took command of the said troops, was within four miles of the sheriff and jailer of this county, and could easily have communicated with either or both of them by telephone, and yet he willfully or ignorantly failed to follow the law and report to either of said officers. We condemn this practice, not only because it violates the constitution and the law, but because we regard it as exceedingly dangerous. For if on the same night Major Albrecht had the troops out the sheriff with a posse had been out on the same mission, neither knowing of the action of the other, a serious clash might have resulted and much innocent blood been shed. Having the utmost confidence in all the civil officers of the county, we recommend that in the future if the military should be called out in this county that the commanding officer report to the proper civil officer as the law prescribes, and let the military at all times be in strict subordination to the civil authorities, thereby averting all chance of a possible clash between them. We make this report to the court, because we can find in the law no penalty against the peculiar violation complained of herein, and request the court to have this report spread upon the record."

"L. D. Hockersmith, foreman; J. A. Rudy, E. D. Cox, J. H. Brown, W. J. Burton, T. M. Brooks, Natt Scott, W. L. Withington, Moses Harris, W. J. Hailey, C. L. Ross, W. R. Webb."

The question of whether or not the governor is going beyond his rightful powers in sending troops into counties where they have not been called for is one which should be investigated and settled. Has the governor a right to transgress or manufacture law in order to enforce law? Is the state under martial law? Is the present state government of Kentucky a military despotism in alliance with the American Tobacco company?

In addition to the main act of lawlessness in sending troops into a country without the request or even consent of the civil officers, the soldiers are getting a long list of lawless deeds on their record. In Christian county they shot and killed a negro woman in her cabin, peacefully engaged in mending garments. In Bracken county one charged along the highway on Sunday morning and by firing a pistol frightened people on their way to church; soldiers turned their horses into a farmer's pasture without his knowledge or consent and the horses killed two fine colts; they stopped and searched a man out driving up his cows in the morning. In Bourbon county they held up and frightened a young man on the highway. In Clarke county, three miles from Winchester, they frightened a man and his wife, aged respectively sixty-five and seventy, and compelled them to put out their lights; they rode on further and shot up the Pilot View schoolhouse door, and further on, frightened a negro tenant family until they fled in their nightclothes to the house of the landlord for protection. No effort has been made to secure a complete list of misdemeanors on the part of soldiers. These instances have come unsolicited and unsought to the attention of the writer.

Some persons discourage investigation of the governor's prerogatives and of the misdeeds of the soldiers, because they say the governor has the pardoning power, and even if found guilty, could pardon not only soldiers, but even himself. However, the fact that the governor may abuse the pardoning power is no excuse for servile submission and neglect of duty on the part of county officers and the courts. Let them do their duty and leave the governor to do or not to do his duty as he may elect.

While we must wait two years for another legislature, we shall have another then, and if the governor lays himself liable to serious action, two years from now will not be too late to act. It is of the utmost importance to put the question to the test of the courts. Is the governor violating the law or acting without the sanction of law in sending troops into a county without the request or consent of the civil authorities?

THE LIVER QUARANTINE

"Hurried eating has ruined many a man's stomach. The digestion-destroying process is gradual, often unnoticed at first. But it is only a short time until the liver balks, the digestive organs give way, and almost countless ills assail the man who endeavors to economize time at the expense of his health.

"A torpid liver causes a quarantine of the entire system. It locks in the diseased germs and body poisons and affords them full play, inviting some serious illness.

"In families where August Flower is used, a sluggish liver and constipation are unknown, so are all stomach ailments, as well as indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, headaches and kidney and bladder afflictions. No well-regulated family should be without this standard remedy.

Prospects For Another Railroad For Paris.

Mr. S. W. Winn, of Chicago, representing the Cincinnati, Kentucky and Virginia railroad, was here Tuesday and that night met with the Mayor and a number of our representative members of the Paris Commercial Club. Mr. Winn talked as if he meant business, and it is now up to Paris and Bourbon county to say whether or not another railroad is desired.

The proposed line of railroad is a trunk line from Cincinnati to Charleston, S.C., the main stem of which is contemplated through Falmouth, Carlisle, Sharpsburg, and Owingsville to Salt Lick and up the Licking river to the present terminus at Blackwater, in Morgan county, the two latter points being connected by a narrow gauge road, and tapping the Chesapeake & Ohio. This stretch of road, which is forty miles in length is being changed to standard gauge road, and will be part of the main line. It is the purpose of the company, back of which are several wealthy Chicagoans, who own the big lumber mills at Yale, Ky., and control the timber and mineral rights to thousands of acres of mountain lands, to tap the Louisville & Nashville railroad at this point, coming direct from Owingsville through Plum and Little Rock, in the extreme eastern portion of the county, before the main line of the road is built via Owingsville, Sharpsburg, Carlisle and Cincinnati.

Confident of the feasibility of the project and reasonably certain of its ultimate construction, Mr. Winn was here to enlist the interest of the people of Paris, and of that section of the county through which the road is to run, and ascertain to what extent they will be willing to subscribe to the project either in funds or in the donation of the right of way, one-half of the subscription to be paid when the roadbed, abutments and bridge are constructed and the remaining one-half when the rails are laid in the city.

Mr. Winn went to Mt. Sterling, driving through to North Middletoon, another wealthy section of Bourbon, several miles south of the proposed line though Little Rock, as he desires to get a view of the topography of that section as a deflection of the road may be made at this point, if the proposed bonus of the citizens of that community will justify.

Surveyors will be put in the field at once. If we understand it, since the above was written, this company wants to make Paris a terminal for this mountain outlet. It looks good on paper and will surely be just what Paris needs. Our people should at once become interested in the project.

Big Sale of Bourbon Tobacco.

A shipment of eighty hogsheads of the 1906 crop of equity tobacco will be made from Paris this week, fifty hogsheads of the consignment going to Nall & Williams, independent tobacco manufacturers of Louisville, and 30 hogsheads of Bagley & Co., another independent firm, of Detroit, Mich.

Fully seventy-five per cent. of the hogsheads were low grade trashes and sold at from $10 to $14 per one hundred pounds, while the remainder was lower grades of red leaf and brought from $12 to $20 per one hundred pounds. No hogshead of jugs and leaf was represented in the purchase. The releasing of the eighty hogsheads of tobacco means the putting into circulation of from twelve to fifteen thousand dollars.

Sale of the White Addition.

Taking everything into consideration, Wakefield, Moore & Wakefield, the recent purchasers of the late G. G. White homestead, had one of the best real estate sales yesterday ever held in Paris. The following prices were obtained for the lots:

Taft Makes Bad Blunder.

James M. Dalzell, aide de camp to the commander in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, gave out a statement Tuesday with reference to the Secretary of War Taft's speech of last Saturday at the tomb of General U. S. Grant.

"How Mr. Taft came to think it necessary to go back into his early career and rake up the only fault General Grant's worst enemy ever gained against him passed understanding," he said, "and I see no necessity for it. The G. A. R., to put it mildly not only is amazed but is hurt."

Secretary Taft stated in his speech that General Grant had resigned from the army to prevent his court martial on the charge of drunkenness.
